

FOUNDATION FOR THE NATIONAL ARCHIVES

Winter 2011 Gift Guide

FOUNDATION FOR THE

NATIONAL ARCHIVES

ORDERING GUIDE

To order, please visit or call the Archives Shop at 202-357-5271

For general questions, please call
Chris DerDerian at 202-357-5366

Members of the Foundation for the National Archives receive a 10% discount off purchases.

Bulk Discount Offer:

Purchase 10 or more of the same item, and receive a 30% discount

Proceeds from the Archives Shop support the educational initiatives of the National Archives Experience.

Thank you for your support!

WHAT'S COOKING, UNCLE SAM?

What's Cooking, Uncle Sam?, paperback 19.95

Based on the National Archives Experience exhibition “What’s Cooking, Uncle Sam? The Government’s Effect on the American Diet,” this catalog traces the Government’s efforts to change the way Americans eat back to the founding fathers. Written by exhibition curator Alice D. Kamps, with a message from Archivist of the United States David S. Ferriero and a foreword by award-winning chef and the exhibition’s Chief Culinary Advisor José Andrés, the catalog explores the various ways the Federal Government has affected the American diet. The full-color catalog features correspondence, legislation, photographs, pamphlets, posters, and even Presidential recipes and menus from the vast collection of records in the National Archives.

Eating with Uncle Sam, hardcover 29.95

Eating with Uncle Sam: Recipes and Historical Bites from the National Archives features over 150 historical and modern-day recipes from the collection at the National Archives, including a wide selection of regional favorites from each of the Presidential libraries. With a message from Archivist of the United States David S. Ferriero and an introduction by America’s 2011 Outstanding Chef of the Year and Chief Culinary Advisor to the National Archives Experience’s “What’s Cooking, Uncle Sam?” exhibition José Andrés, Eating with Uncle Sam explores America’s rich history of food.

“What’s Cooking, Uncle Sam”
4-Coaster Set 16.95

The images “Grow Your Own, Can Your Own,” “Raised ’em myself in a U.S. School Garden,” “Know Your Onions; Make all the Food go all the way,” and “Field-Marshal Potato Pete” from World War II food posters in the records of the National Archives are reproduced on these 4 whimsical coasters.

“Grow Your Own, Be Sure” Canvas Tote, 15 ¾” x 19”
23.95

This sturdy canvas tote with a timely message, features a colorful image of vegetables taken from one of many vintage war posters in the vast holdings of the National Archives, reflecting the Government’s influence on the food we eat from the farm and factory to the kitchen table.

“What’s Cooking, Uncle Sam”
Postcard Book 12.95

This book of 20 vintage poster images taken from the vast holdings of the National Archives reflects the Government’s efforts through the years to inspire, influence, and control what Americans eat. The postcards showcase themes from the two world wars, from encouraging home gardening and the use of leftovers, to movements to “grow and can your own.”

“Grow Your Own, Can Your Own” Tray 14.95

The image of a mother and daughter working together on this whimsical melamine tray is taken from one of many vintage World War II posters held in the records of the National Archives, documenting the Government’ efforts through the years to inspire, influence, and control what Americans eat. Also available: “Know Your Onions” Tray with an image of a chef holding an onion with tears in his eyes.

Flour Sack Kitchen Towel Set
19.95

These gift packs of 2 cotton towels feature full-color images taken from the many vintage war posters in the vast holdings of the National Archives. They reflect the Government’s influence on the food we eat from the farm and factory to the kitchen table. There are three designs to chose from:

- “Grow Your Own, Be Sure!” Poster
- “Know Your Onions” Poster
- “What’s Cooking, Uncle Sam?” Logo

Vitamin Donuts Mug

10.95

This mug promises “pep” and “vigor” whether from the generous sized coffee it holds or the vintage image taken from a World War II-era poster in the holdings of the National Archives advertising “Vitamin Donuts”, fortified with a minimum of 25 units of Vitamin B1.

American Heritage Chocolate

Handcrafted from an authentic colonial recipe by the Historic Division of Mars, Incorporated, the rich taste of these 100% natural chocolate products takes one back in time.

Chocolate Sticks, 4 sticks packaged in cotton bag with vintage design 7.50

Chocolate Block, 5.13 oz. 10.00

Hot Chocolate, 12.7 oz. packaged in cotton bag with vintage design 20.00

Single Chocolate Bar, Individually wrapped 1.50

Garden Jam, 10 oz. jar

9.95

Made in open 40 quart pots, these regionally crafted jams are slow cooked and poured to perfection. Each has a high fruit content and contains all natural ingredients. The handsome jar is beribboned with the National Archives “What’s Cooking, Uncle Sam?” logo on the top. Available flavors are raspberry and rhubarb/strawberry.

BOOKS AND DVDS

Archive This!, paperback

13.50

Discover the wonders of being an Archivist in this exciting kit! Travel along with Ben Franklin as he shows our two intrepid Archivists-in-training around the National Archives, and join them with your very own membership card. Archive This! is a great introduction to the Archives for the children on your list.

The National Archives Building, paperback

18.95

The National Archives Building: Temple of American History is an exploration of the history of the National Archives Building. The book is intended as a lay person's guide to the National Archives Building, explaining its history, architectural features, and the symbolism of its ornate sculptures. Filled with historic photographs and architectural drawings from the Archives' holdings, as well as contemporary photographs by Carol M. Highsmith and Colin Winterbottom, the book celebrates architect John Russell Pope's masterwork and traces the history of the Archives from its inception.

Eating with Uncle Sam, hardcover

29.95

Eating with Uncle Sam: Recipes and Historical Bites from the National Archives features over 150 historical and modern-day recipes from the collection at the National Archives, including a wide selection of regional favorites from each of the Presidential libraries. With a message from Archivist of the United States David S. Ferriero and an introduction by America's 2011 Outstanding Chef of the Year and Chief Culinary Advisor to the National Archives Experience's "What's Cooking, Uncle Sam?" exhibition José Andrés, Eating with Uncle Sam explores America's rich history of food.

What's Cooking, Uncle Sam?*
paperback

19.95

Based on the National Archives Experience exhibition “What’s Cooking, Uncle Sam? The Government’s Effect on the American Diet,” this catalog traces the Government’s efforts to change the way Americans eat back to the founding fathers. Written by exhibition curator Alice D. Kamps, with a message from Archivist of the United States David S. Ferriero and a foreword by award-winning chef and the exhibition’s Chief Culinary Advisor José Andrés, the catalog explores the various ways the Federal Government has affected the American diet. The full-color catalog features correspondence, legislation, photographs, pamphlets, posters, and even Presidential recipes and menus from the vast collection of records in the National Archives.

Discovering the Civil War*
hardcover
paperback

44.95
26.95

Discovering the Civil War peels back 150 years of accumulated analysis, interpretation, and opinion to reveal a Civil War that is little-known. Featuring over 250 letters, diaries, photos, maps, petitions, receipts, patents, amendments and proclamations from the incomparable holdings of the National Archives, it takes a fresh look at the Civil War through little-known stories, seldom-seen documents, and unusual perspectives. Grouped into themes such as "Spies and Conspiracies," "Prisoners and Casualties," "Global War," and "Raising Armies," this new book looks beyond the battlefield to the experiences of ordinary people.

Famous documents, such as the 13th Amendment to the Constitution, are juxtaposed with innovative wartime patents, including a multipurpose device that could serve as a tent, knapsack, or blanket, and a message in Chinese script asking for Confederate ships to be barred from Chinese ports - proving that the Civil War became a truly international struggle.

Records of Our National Life,
hardcover 59.95
paperback 45.00

Published in honor of the Archives' 75th anniversary, Records of Our National Life is a highly illustrated volume that takes the reader on a journey through American history, from the struggle for independence to the 2009 tally of electoral votes. Featuring more than 800 documents, maps, photographs, and drawings, as well as essays by some of America's leading journalists, political commentators, and broadcasters, the book provides readers with a glimpse into the extensive holdings of the Archives.

The Public Vaults Unlocked
hardcover 35.00
paperback 22.50

The Charters of Freedom are just the tip of a vast iceberg of records held by the National Archives. Millions of letters, memos, maps, drawings, photographs, films, and digital files from the three branches of the United States Government are permanently preserved by us, for us – the American people. The Public Vaults permanent exhibition in Washington, D.C. presents the depth, diversity, and magnitude of the Federal Government's records. This book features more than 150 illustrated documents, photographs, audio transcripts, video stills, and installation shots of the interior of the exhibition.

School House to White House
hardcover 29.95
paperback 19.95

This highly illustrated volume uses memoirs, scrapbooks, and letters to reveal the wide range of formative experiences that shaped the lives of the Presidents from Herbert Hoover to George W. Bush. Whatever their station in life at the time, wherever in America they were educated, and whatever circumstances they faced, each young man developed a special regard for schooling and the importance of education.

Ken Burns' Prohibition, DVD

39.99

A 6-hour, three-part documentary from acclaimed filmmaker Ken Burns on America's "Noble Experiment," the 18th Amendment that for 13 years turned millions of law-abiding citizens into "criminals." Here are their stories: the jobbers, bootleggers, gangsters, flappers. But beyond the cocktails and the speakeasies, this is a darker tale about the proper role of government and the politicians who run it, individual rights and responsibilities, and who is and who is not a real American.

My Fellow Americans: The Most Important Speeches of America's Presidents from George Washington to Barack Obama, by Michael Waldman, foreword by David Gergen, CDs narrated by George Stephanopoulos, Hardcover with 2 CDs 39.99

Text of speeches from all 44 presidents, plus on CD the actual voices of every president since Benjamin Harrison: FDR's first inaugural & four freedoms; JFK's inaugural and both his and Reagan's Berlin speeches; campaign recordings of Teddy Roosevelt and Woodrow Wilson; an audio re-enactment of Lincoln's Gettysburg Address; Eisenhower's "Military-Industrial Complex" speech, and much more.

Signing Their Lives Away by Denise Kiernan & Joseph D'Agnese, hardcover 19.95

Introduces in brief, lively portraits the 56 men who signed the Declaration of Independence. Book jacket unfolds into facsimile of the Declaration.

Signing Their Rights Away by Denise Kiernan & Joseph D'Agnese, hardcover 19.95

The companion to the above volume: 39 brief, revealing portraits of the signers of the United States Constitution. Book jacket unfolds into facsimile of all four pages of the Constitution.

DISCOVERING THE CIVIL WAR

Lincoln Quote Bowl

27.50

This 5 ½” glass bowl is etched with the Abraham Lincoln quote “It’s not the years in your life, it’s the life in your years.”

Lincoln Quote Tote Bag, 17½” x 11” 47.95

This handsome, sturdy canvas bag, with interior zip pocket and leather detailing is embroidered with Lincoln’s quote “the things I want to know are in books.”

Cipher Paperweight

12.95

This handsomely boxed, acrylic paperweight is a reproduction of the cipher disk held in the records of the National Archives and created by Maj. Albert J. Myer, a U.S. Army surgeon, to protect Union Army communications.

Civil War Letterhead Stationery Sets 12.95

The design of this antique letterpress stationery was reproduced from authentic letterhead used in professional and personal correspondence during the Civil War era. The original letterhead can be found in the vast Civil War holdings of the National Archives. Choose between Compass, Eagle, Flags, and Ship designs. Each set contains 10 sheets and 10 envelopes .

THE NATIONAL ARCHIVES, THE CHARTERS OF FREEDOM, AND OTHER DOCUMENTS

American Documents Series Ornament

14.95

These brass with 24Kt. gold finish collectable ornaments are part of an annual National Archives series celebrating some of the most important documents in American History.

- 2009 Declaration of Independence
- 2010 Emancipation Proclamation
- 2011 Constitution

National Archives Porcelain Ornament

25.00

This handsome ornament features a rendition of the National Archives Building in Washington, DC.

Brass Bookmarks

5.95

These bookmarks include quotes from important documents in the records of the National Archives. Choose from the following documents:

- Emancipation Proclamation
- Declaration of Independence
- Constitution
- Bill of Rights

Document Reproductions

4.95

Each of these reproductions is handsomely packaged in a tube for gift giving and storage. They are hand dyed in Pennsylvania to give them an authentic look. Choose from the Declaration of Independence, the Constitution, and the Bill of Rights

Declaration Mural Puzzle, 500 pieces

17.95

This puzzle features the Declaration mural by Barry Faulkner in the Rotunda for the Charters of Freedom.

Constitution Mural Puzzle, 500 pieces

17.95

This puzzle features the Constitution mural by Barry Faulkner in the Rotunda for the Charters of Freedom.

“We the People” Mug

9.95

This impressive deep navy blue mug is decorated with the powerful words from the Constitution “We the People.”

“We the People” Baseball

10.95

This patriotic leather ball is inscribed with the words from the U.S. Constitution, “We the People” as well as the signatures of the signers of that founding document.

“We the People” Tote

24.95

This sophisticated, sturdy black and white canvas bag is inscribed with the famous preamble to the U.S. Constitution: “We the People...”

“We the People” Folding Umbrella 29.95

The handsome black exterior of this umbrella, inscribed with “The National Archives Experience,” opens up to reveal a design of the Constitution.

Charters of Freedom 100-page Blank Notebooks 11.95

Within the pages of these specially designed notebooks is a die cut space to hold a pen, so you are never without when you need to make a notation. The outside covers of the notebooks feature details of the Declaration of Independence or the Constitution.

National Archives Bookends 75.00

These impressive bookends reproduce in great detail the grand Constitution Avenue entrance to the National Archives, including the brass doors.

National Archives Building Scarf 45.00

This rectangular devore silk scarf is handsomely designed with a pattern detail from the National Archives building. Available in gold or silver (shown).

National Archives Building Tie 35.00

This silk tie is woven with an elegant design detail from the National Archives building. Available in blue, gold or red (shown).

Words We Live By Quiz Deck: American Historical Documents 9.95

From the Declaration of Independence to the Tonkin Gulf Resolution, this quiz deck features American documents held in the records of the National Archives, reflective of more than two hundred years of United States history. A great learning tool for children and adults.

History Seal Ornament 19.95

The image on this hand crafted fine pewter ornament is a reproduction of the “History” medallion embedded in the floor of the foyer leading to the Rotunda of the National Archives Building.

History Seal Paperweight

12.95

A reproduction of the “History” medallion embedded in the floor of the foyer leading to the Rotunda of the National Archives Building is the centerpiece of this handsomely boxed acrylic paperweight.

Magna Carta Pen 12.95

Inscribed in script with the words “Magna Carta” and “National Archives Experience,” this impressive black and silver pen housed in a handsome gift box lends a sense of history to the user.

When Elvis Met Nixon Puzzle, 500 pieces

17.95

The most popular image reproduced from the National Archives records is the White House meeting between President Nixon and Elvis Presley. This puzzle is a reproduction of a photograph from that historic meeting.